

What is Earth Day?

Earth Day is a special day when we celebrate our planet.

It happens every year on April 22nd. On this day, people all around the world plant trees, clean up parks, and learn about how to take care of nature. It's a day to remember that we need to keep our Earth clean and safe for everyone, including animals and plants.

When is Earth Day?

Earth Day is on _____.

What is Earth Day for? Circle the correct answer.

1. It's for giving presents to everyone we know.
2. It's for celebrating summer.
3. It's for celebrating our planet by keeping it clean and safe.

Color all of the pictures related to Earth Day.

